

STATE OF INDIANA)
) SS:
COUNTY OF WARREN) CAUSE NO. 86C01-0502-CB-27

IN RE: COURT APPOINTMENTS AND LOCAL RULES

LR86-TR79-CV-01

Pursuant to TR 79(H), the Warren Circuit Court makes the following rules regarding the reassignment to Special Judges in all matters other than criminal cases:

- (a) The following panel shall serve as Special Judge where appointed pursuant to TR 79(H), to be selected alphabetically by last name of Judge, in rotating order as follows:

Hon. David A. Ault, Judge of Montgomery Superior Court

Hon. Vincent F. Grogg, Senior Judge

Hon. Robert M. Hall, Senior Judge

Hon. Susan Orr Henderson, Judge of Fountain Circuit Court

Hon Rex W. Kepner, Judge of Benton Circuit Court

Hon. Thomas K. Milligan, Judge of Montgomery Circuit Court

In the event the Judge selected above does not assume jurisdiction, the next Judge in order shall be appointed. In the event no Judge is eligible to serve as Special Judge, then such case shall be certified to the Supreme Court.

- (b) In the event the Judge disqualified himself in any proceeding, other than a criminal case, in which the Judge determines that he has a conflict of interest, the cause shall be assigned to Senior Judge Robert M. Hall or if he is not available for any reason, such case shall be assigned to Senior Judge Vincent F. Grogg.

Should Senior Judges Hall and Grogg be unable to serve for any reason, the procedure specified in paragraph (a) above shall be used with the exception that such Judges shall be removed from the rotation.

The above rule to be effective as of January 1, 2005. The Warren Circuit Court respectfully requests the Supreme Court to approve this rule to take effect without notice and opportunity for comment.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "John A. Rader", written over a horizontal line.

John A. Rader, Judge
Warren Circuit Court